

Quests of the Rogue Order

One-Hour School Support

Summary:

One of the most effective ways to change the world for the better is to prepare the next generation to succeed. On the frontlines of this noble endeavor are often overworked and under-supported teachers. With this quest, members of the order have a chance to help teachers behind-the-scenes for just one hour.

The key here is to be flexible and available. It is hard to predict exactly how you will be needed. You may be asked to sharpen pencils, sanitize desks, grade simple tests, organize paperwork, and so forth.

Community Impact:

Teachers and school administrators must often juggle many different responsibilities. If the burdens of some of the paperwork or other housekeeping tasks were lifted, these educators will then be able to focus more of their time and energy on preparing lessons, planning customized teaching strategies, or otherwise be more effective.

Steps & Instructions:

- Call or email a local school. Let them know that you would like to volunteer for one hour, helping with whatever the office or classroom teachers need such as organizing books, inflating recess balls or scrubbing chairs. (Feel free to quote or link to the Rogue Order's page when describing our community, if necessary.) Ask them when they would like you to volunteer. (You may be able to come in on the weekends or in the evening if you are not available during school hours.)
- Arrive as scheduled wearing presentable clothes suitable for possible grunge work and work gloves. (For safety reasons, it is important to be friendly and accommodating, especially if you are a stranger to the school staff.) Report to the head administration and let them know of your time constraints and willingness to help.
- As you begin your service, set an alarm for yourself on your watch or cell phone for when you need to leave. When the time is up, be sure to thank the administration and teachers for the chance to serve your community.
